

Photograph 1

View of freshwater marsh looking west along the proposed road corridor. This marsh is associated with the unnamed perennial drainage that is tributary to Pleasant Grove Creek.

Photograph 2

The freshwater marsh vegetation community consists primarily of cattails, but also includes common rush, knotweed, dallasgrass, and hairy willowherb.